

Intra Oral Camera

These magnified images not only help the dentist to see more clearly but also help patients understand the state of their teeth by showing them what is happening in their mouth.

Many people who are not quite convinced by the dentist's explanation are able to convince themselves of the treatment they require and need.